My dear Ranen Sen,

There was no question whether you would be elected or no. so you are there once again. Now for a few jobs of the AITUC whom you should not forget.

There is the usual May Day tangle. I propose to send Tahir Hussain of Burnpur and Kedar Das of Jamshedpur, both steel cities, to Germany.

So will you help Tahir Hussain to get the passport. I think Bihar also is in Bengal circle and Kedar Das also will require attention.

Yours fraternally,

( S. A. Dange. )

Dear Com. Kedar Das,

Congratulations on your election victory. Now for the next job.

We propose to send you and Kedar Das of Jamshedpur for a short visit to Germany in a May Day delegation.

You will return by the middle of May or about 20th of May.

You will have opportunity to see many German factories and see how workers there live.

You have to leave by 20th April. So arrange to apply for passport to Europe. You will go by air. The fares will be borne by the AITUC.

You may have to go to Calcutta to get passport. The purpose of visit should be stated as "visit to German Steel Works on May Day".

Countries for which passport is asked for should be "all countries in Europe". If they object to all countries, then ask for U. K., Switzerland, France, Czechoslovakia, Germany (do not state East or West - say just Germany)

Do not refuse to go and be quick in doing all the formalities.

Consult Dr. Ranen Sen in Calcutta and others.
